Dear OLOL Families,

Thank you to all that attended parent teacher conferences. Great relationships between parents and teachers translates to better student success. We had a great turnout and were able to raise some funds to assist the citizens of Fr. Benny's home state of Kerala. Thank you to all that contributed.

Last week I thanked Colleen Steier and David Cuene for chairing the Night of Keys. Many people assisted them to make the night a great success. Thank you to Amy Blevins, Stacy Eckes-Borys, Melissa Barry, Andrew and Gina Knuth, Delvin Johnson, Bill and Darcie Derouin, Kyle and Alex Beals, Kristin Nelson, Leslie Ward, Heather Williams, Carey Fink, Todd and Michelle Mader, Luke VerBoort, Jeff O'Connor, Adela Calaway, and Alessandra D'Alessandro. We also had some OLOL students assist us with set-up. They were Hannah and Diego Beals, Kaylin Nelson, and Grace Borys. I apologize for missing any names. I will conclude by giving a special thank you to Brad Williams and Brian Eastman for driving golf carts on a very chilly night.

Mrs. Eggart is concluding National Hispanic Month with several activities. On Monday, the 8th graders are in charge of presenting a National Hispanic Month assembly. Mrs. Eggart taught all of our students about the Mexican tradition of face painting on the Day of the Dead (all Soul's Day). The 8th grade girls are going to be painting student's faces as a way to make the curriculum come to life. There is also going to be showing of the Movie "Coco" on Friday. Permission slips were sent home for all of these Spanish activities.

I wish to thank the parents that completed a school survey after Mass last week-end. We want to construct a school that meets the needs of our parishioners. This information will help us to create a strategic plan that will guide us now and into the future. Here is the link:

If you completed the survey after Mass last week-end, please don't complete it again. Thank you

Our Lady of Lourdes is excited to welcome the Accreditation Team that will be here to validate our Self-Study report that the staff has been working on the past 2 years. We are proud of our school for providing educational excellence and forming the next generation of faith leaders.
