Dear Lourdes Families,

I hope this letter finds you all ready for Christmas and her children are prepared for the coming of Christ.

Thank you to all that joined us for the Christmas Concert last week.

Mrs. Lewis and the students did a great job. Thank you for taking time out of your schedules to join us and get ourselves in the Christmas Spirit. The 8th graders also appreciate all of you that purchased baked goods. You helped them conclude their years at OLOL with a wonderful class trip.

Our students will be presented ALICE training tomorrow with Office Joe Johnson from the De Pere Police Department. School safety has been a major focus of the GRACE principals this year. OLOL safety committee has worked diligently on our safety plan over the past couple of years. This ALICE presentation aligns with our safety plan is a great resource for our students both in and out of school.

There won't be a Lourdes Letter when we return on Wednesday, January 2nd.

I'm going to participate again in the Green Bay Gamblers "Dash for Cash". Please consider attending the January 29th game and cheer me on as I try to grab as much cash I can for OLOL. Our school will also receive $3.00 for each ticket sold. Please enjoy a family night out while helping out OLOL.

I wish all our Lourdes Families a blessed Christmas and enjoy the time with your friends and families. My Christmas wish for all of you is that you continue to look for and enjoy those small blessings in your life. Those special moments and blessings are what we should value the most and counter the circumstances and situations that create anxiety. The more we focus on the blessings the more rewarding life becomes.

"Christmas is joy, religious joy, an inner joy of light and peace" - Pope Francis

Jeffrey Young
